

CAMBRIDGE SCULPTURE TRAILS

Trail 2

1: Laurence Bradshaw

Doors of the Guildhall 1933 | Bronze

2: Gary Webb*

Snowy 2012 | Painted metal

3: Michael Ayrton

Talos 1950 | Bronze

4: Peter Randall-Page*

Between the Lines 2007 | Granite

5: Ackroyd and Harvey

Slate Work East and Slate Work South, two murals installed 2016

6: John Taylor & Matthew Lane Sanderson

The Corpus Clock 2008 | Gold-plated stainless steel

7: Eric Gill

Cavendish Crocodile 1933 | Engraving on brick

8: Antony Gormley

Earthbound: Plant 2002 | Cast iron

9: Sculptor Unknown

Bears 1904 | Clipsham stone

10: Sophie Dickens

Mother and Child 2008 | Carved wood

11: Wendy Taylor

Jester 1994 | Bronze

CHRIST'S COLLEGE

12: Anthony Caro

Deposition 2000 | Rolled steel

13: Tim Harrison

A Pattern of Life 2001 | Portland limestone

14: Phillip King

Darwin 2011 | Painted steel

15: Anthony Smith

The Young Darwin 2009 | Bronze

JESUS COLLEGE

16: Barry Flanagan

Bronze Horse 1983 | Bronze
An impressive collection of other sculptures are in the grounds of Jesus College

CLARE COLLEGE

17: Barbara Hepworth

Divided Circle 1969 | Bronze

18: Wu Wei-Shan

Confucius 2006 | Bronze

19: Charles Jencks

DNA Double Helix 2005 | Aluminium

20: Robert Adams

Two 1976-7 | Stainless steel

21: Henry Moore

Falling Warrior 1956 | Bronze

22: Harry Gray & Will Hill with Pulsar Lighting

Discover and Acquire 2015 | Metal and light

23: Harry Gray

Ex Libris 2009 | Bronze

24: Edmund de Waal

A Local History 2013 | Three vitrines filled with porcelain

25: Nigel Hall

Bigger Bite 2010 | Bronze

26: Phillip King

Span 1967 | Painted steel

27: Helaine Blumenfeld

Flame 2004 | Patinated bronze

ROBINSON COLLEGE

28: Ben Barrell

Finback 2008 | Bronze resin on steel base

29: Philip de Koning

Sailing into the Future 2008 | Stainless steel

30: Christophe Gordon Brown

Conversing Figures 2008 | Marble

*Funded by S106 Public Art contributions received by Cambridge City Council

